The District will follow NJDOE and CDC health guidelines. Still, do you intend to send your children to school in the Fall?

543 responses

- Yes: 47.3%
- No: 49.7%
- Uncertain: 3.0%

Uncertain. It would depend on what health and safety measures are in place. I will make a decision based on those.
The District will follow NJDOE and CDC health guidelines. With this in mind, how comfortable do you feel sending your child to school in the Fall?

The District will follow NJDOE and CDC health guidelines. Still, we would like to know which educational delivery model you prefer:

537 responses

- 46% All virtual learning (You can expect enhancements based on teacher, student, and parent feedback about our distance learning model from this past…)
- 12.3% A blended model (Some in-person instruction that follows NJDOE and CDC health guidelines AND some virtual learning. This may look like a split day…)
- 41.7% In-person instruction (that follows whatever the "new normal" of school will be.)
Which factors would make you feel more comfortable sending your children to school. Check all that apply.
